

Week 1 – Web Programming Exam (HTML, CSS & Bootstrap)

(20 Marks)

1. Final web page layout must follow the following outline (8 marks)

your name

THINGS TO KNOW ABOUT ME!

- Point 1 about me
- Point 2 about me
- Point 3 about me
- Point 4 about me
- Point 5 about me

My Journey So Far...

CSP

- What you enjoyed
- What could improve
- Any rants / compliments

ADS

- What you enjoyed
- What could improve
- Any rants / compliments

DBMS

- What you enjoyed
- What could improve
- Any rants / compliments

ICS

- What you enjoyed
- What could improve
- Any rants / compliments

CNF

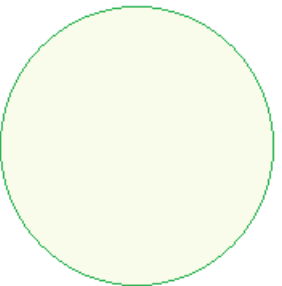

- What you enjoyed
- What could improve
- Any rants / compliments

CS

- What you enjoyed
- What could improve
- Any rants / compliments

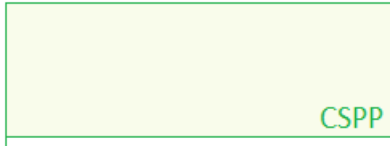

2. Make the web page responsive (3 marks)
3. Use of separate files for styles (css) and the skeleton (html) and appropriate pictures used in the filled in areas. (5 marks)

- 1.

Insert a profile pic inside this circle

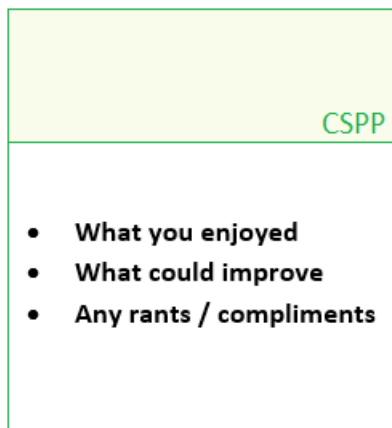

- 2.

Insert course pic and label on top of the picture (hint: you might need to change the position property, and change the opacity and color of image and text respectively to make it more legible)
)

4. Make the course cards scrollable on overflow (2 marks)

(This is a course card –

)

5. Use of unordered list and list contents filled in (5 points about you and rest as shown) (2 marks)

(hint: you can write “the course wasn’t memorable” under rants/compliments if you can’t think of improvements or what you enjoyed!)

Bonus marks (will be added only if possible) –

1. Use box shadow on each of the cards. (0.25 mark)
2. Horizontal rule tag below the “My Journey So Far...” text. (0.25 marks)
3. Appropriate use of bootstrap. (1 mark)